CHINESE GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP

Chinese Government Scholarship program is established by the Ministry of Education of P. R. China (MOE) in accordance with cooperation and exchange agreements or consensus reached by the Chinese government and the governments and institutions of other nations. China Scholarship Council (CSC), entrusted by China's Ministry of Education, is responsible for the admission, enrollment and administration of Chinese Government Scholarship recipients.

Chinese Government Scholarship provides full scholarships to talented students and scholars to pursue higher education or conduct research in Chinese universities. It sponsors undergraduates, graduates, general and senior scholars to study for degree and non-degree programs.

Duration: Undergraduate:4-6 years; Master:2-4 years; PhD:3-5 years; Non-Degree:1 year

There are 289 designated Chinese universities offering Chinese-taught and English-taught academic programs in a variety of disciplines: science, engineering, agriculture, medicine, economics, law, management, education, history, literature, philosophy, and fine arts, among others.

Visit <https://www.campuschina.org/universities/index.html> for a list of designated universities.

Application Process

Applicants from Southern California, Arizona, Hawaii, New Mexico and American Pacific Islands need to apply through Consulate General of the People's Republic of China in Los Angeles.

To find information of Chinese universities and majors they offer from websites (<https://www.campuschina.org/universities/index.html>) and identify the preferred scholarship program, designated universities and majors

To reach the university for admission documents

To fill in and submit the Application Form for Chinese Government Scholarship online via the Chinese Government Scholarship Information System (<https://www.campuschina.org>)

The Consulate will screen candidates' documents, and then submit the recommended candidates list and their application documents to China Scholarship Council (CSC).

CSC will organize designated universities and experts concerned to examine applicants' eligibility and academic performance before finalizing the short-list candidates.

CSC will notify admission results to the Consulate that will subsequently inform the applicants and send them admission letters.
